Minutes:

VINCENT JAMES WALTER WALLEY IV expressed the difficulties he was experiencing with the City of Henderson and the state and federal governments. The Commissioners explained that they had no authority in other jurisdictions.

TODD FARLOW, 240 North 19th Street, noted the site plans coming before the Planning Commissioners did not seriously address sustainability and encouraged that sustainability be taken into consideration in the future.

BRANDON SPRAGUE, Aptus Architecture, noted the many challenges in improving downtown and thanked the Commissioners for all their efforts to redevelop the area.

MARGO WHEELER, Director of the Planning and Development Department, noted the difference in meeting dates for November and December.

DOUG RANKIN, Planning and Development Department, added that no abeyance requests could be granted between 11/29 and 12/6 as there would be insufficient time to notice those applications. He also pointed out that laptops had been provided to the Commissioners in an effort to reduce the amount of paper used for each meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 10:01 p.m.
